pedoed.

By Associated Press.
London, December 13.—Bulgarian troops are now within five miles of the Greek border in Serbia, a Saloniki dispatch says.

Both Doiran and Gievgeli, close to the border, have been evacuated by the Anglo-French forces, according to the message.

An Athens newspaper declares that Greek troops are moving toward the Serbian border, at a point where Bulgarian troops are preparing to cross the boundary line, and that the Greeks apparently intend to dispute the crossing.

The Italian chamber of deputies has voted confidence in the Salandra ministry. The vote was 391 to 40.

U. S. AWAITS
EARLY ACTION
OF AUSTRIA

By Associated Press.
Washington, December 13.—Further action by the United States government on its demands of Austria-Hungary, as set forth in a communication regarding the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, the text of which was published today, now rests with the Austrian government.
Baron Erich Zweidinek, charge of the Austrian embassy, had conference today with Secretary Lansing.
When the conference was over Secretary Lansing said the Ancona note had been discussed, but he declined to answer any questions.

The note clearly indicates that a break in the diplomatic relations between the two countries will follow failure of the Austro-Hungarian government to redress the acts of the submarine commander.

Meantime, administration officials are awaiting with keen interest some word from Vienna indicating how the communication was received and its effect on public opinion.

ord for raising revenues for national

No action was taken on either.

POLITICIAN
DIES AT 81

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 13.—Francis Marion Cockerell, 81 years old, former United States senator from Missouri, died here today.

Infirmities of old age, resulting in a serious illness during the last week caused his death. Mr. Cockerell, a Democrat, served five terms in the United States Senate from 1875 to 1905.

RECORDS ARE SURRENDERED

By Associated Press.

New York, December 13.—L. P.
Straube, former secretary of Labor's National Peace Council, today turned

On Board the Steamship Oscar II, by Wireless, December 13.—Prominent members of Henry Ford's peace party refused last night to sign a resolution condemning President Wilson's preparedness policy.

More than a dozen members, including S. S. McClure, of New York, and Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, refused to sign the resolution, prepared by Rev. Jenkin Jones and Rev.
Charles Aked, on the ground that it was unpatriotic.

An appeal, addressed to each reigning monarch of Europe, was wirelessed today.

The message says the party does not wish to intrude upon the national life and ideals of the countries at war, but desires to aid the people in realizing their ideals.

In part, the message says:

"We neutrals are about to join in a conference which shall, without delay, frame and submit to you and all other belligerent nations, proposals as a basis for discussion leading to a final settlement.

Therefore, we earnestly entreat you and the rulers of all other warring nations to declare an immediate truce.

Then, let the negotiations proceed, so that the soldiers may be delivered from another bitter winter in the trenches and sent back to their labors and firesides.

As there is no other way to end the war except by mediation and discussion, why waste
one more precious human life?

Increases allowed include those on live stock, except horses and mules, eastward from points west of Pittsburgh and Buffalo, advances on cattle to points east of Pittsburgh and Buffalo and in New England and fresh meats from the middle west to the East and New England.

The commission's decision says it is impossible to estimate the additional revenues to the roads, but it is expected to be several hundred thousand dollars a year.

THEIR AGES

Right now when several prominent gentlemen have thrown "their hats in the ring" wherein will be fought out the battle for the Republican presidential nomination, a great many people are asking "how formation it may be stated that Theodore E. Burton was born December 20, 1851 and is therefore nearly 64 years of age. Eliffu Root was born February 15th, 1845 and is therefore well along towards 71 years of age. Albert Baird Cummings was born February 15th, 1850 and will therefore be 66 years of age next February. Edgar Borah, the youngest of the candidates, was born June 29th, 1865 and is now past 50 years of age.

MANY FALL ON
ICY PAVEMENT

Saturday and Sunday were typical "fall" days, and as a result a large number of citizens sustained more or less painful injuries due to falling on the ice-covered pavement.

The condition of the streets and earth generally from early Saturday until the snow fell Sunday night was very dangerous, and scores of persons fell heavily.

Saturday night, too, add to the danger, some of the street lights were out and this caused many falls which otherwise would not have occurred.

The slippery condition of the streets was due to rain which froze as it fell. Fortunately the falling rain did not freeze upon telephone and telegraph wires and branches of trees in sufficient quantities to cause any serious damage.

Mr. J. S. Smith, manager of the Parish Furniture Company, was among those sustaining injuries. He was able to be about Monday morning, however.

Mr. C. C. McCrea was badly hurt in a fall Saturday evening.

The holes for placing the trees were excavated by the use of dynamite.

A CURE FOR BRONCHITIS

We Have Been Selling in Washington Court House for Many Years a Remedy we Guarantee.

Please read the following letter and we promise if you buy a bottle of Vinol from us and are the least bit dissatisfied, we will cheerfully return your money.

Woodstock, Ill. "I suffered from bronchitis, had a very bad cough and a pain in my chest, was weak and tired all the time. It seemed almost impossible for me to go on with my work. I tried different remedies without benefit, also cough medicines, but my druggist recommended Vinol, and it gave me almost instant relief. Its continued use cured my bronchitis and built me up so that I feel like a different man." Charles Botts.

The reason that cough syrups fail in such cases is because they are palliative only, while Vinol removes the cause, being a constitutional remedy in which are combined the healing elements of fresh cods' livers together with tonic iron and beef peptone. It strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease. Our faith in Vinol is shown in the above offer. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Saving for Christmas

Some idea of the growth of the very wholesome practice of saving funds for Christmas buying, may be obtained from the announcement that in the one city of Columbus alone the banks, which have encouraged the Christmas fund savings idea, will turn over four hundred thousand dollars to holiday shoppers.

What of happiness that means to those who now have the money to spend, just when they need it most, and what it means, in the way of increased business in the stores and shops of the Capital City, can scarcely be overestimated.

What is true in Columbus is true in almost every city of this section of the country.

Of course, the idea of saving money by making small deposits is not new. It has been known for a long time. The only trouble has been that so few have availed themselves of the plan.

We Americans are peculiar in our ways—it seems necessary for us speaking, of course, generally, to have an objective—a purpose for every action.

Perhaps, too few Americans, for the individual prosperity of the country, are able to save money simply for the sake of saving it. As a usual thing, we Americans want to make money to spend and if there is not something in view at the end of a saving campaign to spend it for, then, most of us, are pretty certain to spend it as soon as it is received.

The saving for a Christmas fund idea has apparently furnished the sufficiently alluring "want" to pull many Americans through a saving campaign.

Saving during the year for Christmas now has become immensely popular and best of all it's wholesome and results in good all around.

Indeed, if this saving for Christmas fashion, remaining popular a little while longer, possibly, we Americans may form a habit of saving just for the sake of saving. We are strong for habits and that would be a habit worth while.

Will Pay Board's Debts

The state emergency board, that one extra arm of the state government which reaches out and assists any of the departments that lose their way in the forests of financial difficulties, when the regular arms of the budget system prove too short, has harkened to the wailings of the state agricultural board.

Ohio folks will remember that this year the new state board of agriculture wound up the state fair with a deficit of, practically, twenty thousand dollars and, consequently, public service has not been pleasant for the members of the board since the fair closed. Heartless creditors insisted on receiving the money due them.

The agriculture board had a splendid alibi but the creditors refused to accept an alibi and insisted on money.

The only thing to be done, under such embarrassing circumstances, with creditors in every community of the state, as for the "ag" board to send out a call of distress, and it did.

After due consideration the emergency board has concluded to dip into the state treasury for the needed twenty thousand dollars and pay up. This of course only after it had been definitely settled that the members of the agriculture board, incurring a larger indebtedness than they could pay, had acted in good faith, that they were new to the work, having only been appointed shortly before the date fixed for the fair, and couldn't be expected to know as much about the finances pertaining to their department as their predecessors in office.

It's right that the emergency board should provide the money to wipe out the deficit. The whole people of the state don't expect a comparatively few individuals to lose money account of the short comings of officials, whether they are a result of good or bad intentions.

The state of Ohio has a big treasure chest and comfortable balance, and the people will approve of the action of the emergency board in authorizing the payment of the state's debts.

If the agriculture board is made up of well intentioned incompetent members there should be a reorganization. In any event though the state treasury should make good the individuals throughout Ohio who extended credit to regularly appointed officials.

Poetry For Today

CROSSES.

There is a cross—a cross of iron, The gift of an iron hand, Who wears it over his iron heart, He must relentlessly do his part For the sake of the Fatherland, And deal, with bullets and bayonet thrusts, Death and despair—alas, he must!

There is another cross; it is Simply a cross of red. Who wears it knows neither friend nor foe, But pity only; and to and fro, He is swift to carry relief from pain, And, to the tortured, strength again.

Working to save salvation's own Sign he may fairly don. The bursting shells and the shrapnel dust Fall, all unheeded; if die he must, He will die—but his work lives on; He is tender, tireless, and none more brave; Fighting always—to cheat the grave

It is true a day is due When reckoning shall be made, Who then will face the tribunal dread, Among the ranks of the risen dead, Calm, steadfast and unafraid? In the dawn of that Resurrection Morn, Which cross then will be proudly worn?

SAYS WIFE INSANE WHEN HE MARRIED HER HERE

HIGHLAND COUNTY MAN MAKES UNUSUAL CHARGE IN ACTION FOR DIVORCE—DECLARES THE WOMAN WHOM HE MARRIED WAS INSANE AND THAT NO LEGAL MARRIAGE CONTRACT WAS MADE—ASKS COURT FOR RELIEF.

Alleging that the woman he married in this city September 22, 1915, was insane and that a legal marriage contract does not exist, William Bruce has filed action in the Highland county common pleas court in which he asks for divorce from Ruth Ethel Bruce, and summons has been placed in the hands of Sheriff Jones to serve on the defendant.

The plaintiff charges that when he married the defendant he was unaware that she was afflicted as charged, and that he has since learned that the defendant upon three occasions has been confined in an insane asylum.

Plaintiff states that he learned that the defendant was first adjudged insane in the Fayette county probate court, September 23, 1911, and committed to the insane asylum at Athens, Ohio; that the defendant again was taken before the probate court upon affidavit by her father, and sent to the Athens asylum. This was about July, 1913, and that the defendant also was confined in the Bethesda Hospital for the insane in Cincinnati.

Bruce asks that the alleged marriage contract be declared null and void.

J. S. S. Riley, of Hillsboro, represents the plaintiff in the action.

Because of the unusual nature of the charges the suit is attracting more than ordinary attention, and is one of the first of its kind filed in which a Fayette county citizen is one of the principals.

Superintendent's Office.

Portland, Oregon, 7-3-12.

Board of Public Works.

Seattle, Washington.

Gentlemen:

We are advised by the representative of Bitulithic Pavement at Portland, that it has been stated that Bitulithic was not suitable for paving the down-town district of an important city, and they have asked us to cite our experience in Portland. We are therefore taking the liberty of addressing you on the subject.

Our warehouse is located on the corner of Fifth and Pine Sts., in the center of the wholesale district. In 1904 brick was used as a material for paving Pine street. Fifth St. was paved in 1904 with Bitulithic. We have had an enormous amount of standing traffic as well as through traffic on both of these streets, and now that nine years have passed we are able to pass on the merits of the two pavements.

The Bitulithic Pavement today is in first-class condition, notwithstanding it is now in its ninth year. Last year Pine street which had been paved with brick was in such a wretched condition, having been worn into chuck holes, that an effort was made by the Creosote Block Interests to pave Pine Street with Creosote Blocks. The property owners of Pine Street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, however, believing that Bitulithic would make a better pavement for them than wood blocks, let a private contract to the Bitulithic Company, and the old bricks were taken up on Pine Street, and Bitulithic is now laid in its place. That the property owners in this block should unanimously decide on Bitulithic as the pavement to be used, with the example of Fifth street before them, which has been in use nine years, should be sufficient endorsement of the merits of this pavement. We consider Bitulithic Pavement in every way suitable for heavy traffic, giving a good foothold for the horse, and the traction is in every way suitable and equal to any other pavement in the city.

"Anyose who will visit Portland and examine the conditions around our building, including the present condition of the pavement, will see for themselves the basis for the above opinion.

"Yours very truly,

"Marshall-Wells Hardware Co.

"(Signed) B. A. Camp,

GRATIFYING REPORT ON RED CROSS SEALS

Over a hundred dollars for last week is the very gratifying report from the sale of Red Cross Seals.

Sunday was observed all over the United States as tuberculosis Sunday and the various pastors of the city at their church services called attention to it and the great work which is being accomplished through the sale of Red Cross seals in stamping out the white plague.

In this city the proceeds from the sale of the Red Cross seals will go a long way towards helping financially in the charity work of the city generally as well as in protecting against the dread tuberculosis. Four-fifths of the proceeds are turned back to the Welfare Association to be used in helping the poor of our city.

WANTS ANOTHER ON THE THRONE

President Yuan Refuses the Imperial Crown.

ISSUES DECREE TO COUNCIL

Declares His Willingness to Serve as President of China Until Some One Else Is Selected as Emperor—Chinese Legation at Washington Makes Public Yuan's Mandate and Council's Petition.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The report that Yuan Shi Kai, who has been president of the Chinese republic since its foundation in 1913, has consented to accept the imperial crown is contradicted by a dispatch received by the Chinese legation.

The legation made public the essential points in the president's mandate just issued by Yuan Shi Kai. The decree makes it clear that China has reverted to a monarchical form of government, but it represents Yuan Shi Kai as protesting against having the crown thrust upon him and pleading that somebody else be selected "to ascend the throne."

The copy of the mandate received here indicates that he declined the honor, but consented to continue to serve as president until someone else was named as emperor.

It was acknowledged at the legation that this seemed to conflict with the press reports from Pekin, which indicated that Yuan declined the honor at first, but later accepted. The decree gives this communication from the state council to Yuan Shi Kai: "This council found that there are 1,993 national citizen representatives, and there are 1,993 votes in favor of a constitutional monarchy, and all the laws and ordinances, with the exception of those which are in conflict with this form of government, are still valid." The decree urges Yuan to ascend the throne.

Yuan Shi Kai says in the decree:

"If I made myself emperor I would break my oath, and there is no excuse on the point of faith. My primary object, however, is to save the country and to save the people, and I do not mind sacrificing myself for the attainment of this object. I think the citizens' representatives who love me will not force upon me the task which would be difficult for me to execute. I, the president, meantime will, in the exercise of existing duties of powers, still maintain the existing conditions throughout the whole country. The petitions are herewith returned."

KAISER SPEAKS

GERMANY DISAVOWS FRANZ RINTELEN

Says He Had No Instruction to Violate American Laws.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Germany has officially repudiated Franz Rintelen, the German who is now under arrest in London, who was charged with having financed the pro-German plots and conspiracies in this country. The repudiation was made in the form of an official statement given out at the German embassy by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, acting on direct instructions from Berlin. The statement was as follows: "The German government entirely dis-vows Mr. Franz Rintelen, and especially wishes to say that it issued no instructions of any kind which could have led him to violate American laws."

Rintelen, who was a prominent figure in Wall street at the time the alleged pro-German conspiracies were afoot, was generally looked upon as a personal friend of Kaiser Wilhelm, and as having been the financial backer of various schemes in the interest of German propaganda and German interests. Among other things he was charged with being the backer of the proposed Huerta uprising in Mexico, the purpose of which was to embarrass the United States government. He was arrested in London under an alias corresponding to the name set forth in a Swiss passport he was carrying.

BOOMING CLARK FOR PRESIDENT

New York, Dec. 13.—A number of Democrats who have confidence in the winning power of Champ Clark and unbounded enthusiasm for the man himself have established the Champ Clark presidential campaign committee and set out to boost Mr. Clark. "It is our purpose," says a brief circular issued by the committee, "to organize in the various states of the Union as we feel that there is a strong sentiment in favor of Champ Clark. We strongly urge that the Democratic party platform for a one term plank must be carried out."

The personnel of the organization is thus outlined: Julius J. Binder, chairman; Philip Lewy, vice chairman; M. L. Crames, secretary; Michael E. Tropauer, treasurer.

MUST ATTEND PUBLIC SCHOOL

Chardon, O., Dec. 13.—Despite the fact that her countrymen believe the world to be flat, Mary Miller, a Middlefield Amish girl, must go to school and learn the contrary. This was the decision of Justice Bridgen at Middlefield after a bitterly fought suit to compel Joe Miller, her father, to send the girl to school. Justice Bridgen decided the case in favor of the state and fined Miller $5 and costs. A motion was made for a new hearing. Middlefield Amishmen will back Miller in fighting the case.

EXPECT TUSSLE

BIG RAILROAD STRIKE LIKELY NEXT SPRING

Men Demand Eight Hour Day and Increase of Wages.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—It became known that a nationwide railroad strike on May 1, 1916, is the possible outcome of a conference of representatives of western engineers and firemen in Chicago unless radical and sweeping increases in pay and decrease in working hours are agreed to by the employers.

Eastern and southern railroad engineers and firemen previously had agreed to join forces in compelling railroads to raise wages and to cut the working day to eight hours, with time and a half for overtime. Sunday the western enginemen's representatives decided to cast their lot with the others.

A general conference of eastern, southern and western railroad men's representatives will be held in Chicago Wednesday to prepare preliminary plans for shutting down every large railroad in the country if no heed is given their demands.

"No one can predict what will happen four months from now," said Warren Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "There is no basis as yet for stating that the question between us and the employers will or will not be arbitrated, nor can anyone at this time say whether there will or will not be a strike."

MOLDERS STRIKE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 13.—Just when they are under an avalanche of orders the seventy foundries, or a majority of them at least, in this district will be tied up by a strike of 1,500 molders, who demand an eight hour day. A few foundries have granted a shorter day, but the majority have not.

CANAL CAUSED LOWER RATES

Washington, Dec. 13.—The marked effect of the opening of the Panama canal on transcontinental railroad rates is set forth in the twenty-ninth annual report of the interstate commerce commission.

"Since the opening of the Panama canal," the commission says, "the water carriers have materially reduced their rates, shortened the time of transportation, increased the frequency of sailings, added to their tonnage capacity, and largely added to the tonnage secured of this coast to coast freight."

TURKS HARASS THE ENGLISH

London, Dec. 13.—A Turkish official statement received here by way of Berlin says that the British forces which are entrenched at Kut-el-Amara are in danger of being cut off from the rear, and that it is expected that they will be forced to retreat further to the south. The statement also repeats private advices received in Constantinople to the effect that the battalions were surrounded and taken prisoners. The position of the expeditionary force as described in the Turkish statement is far from reassuring. The Turks have driven the British forces from the right bank of the Tigris at Kut-el-Amara and have occupied the bridge across the river driving off gunboats which disputed their progress.

SHARP NOTE DISPATCHED TO AUSTRO-HUNGARIANS

Disavowal of Ancona Affair Demanded.

LANSING ASSAILS ACT

Terms Destruction of Liner as Barbarous and Inhuman.

ASKS FOR FULL REPARATION

Would Have Commander of the Austrian Submarine That Torpedoed the Ancona Punished for the Deed, Which Secretary of States Assumes Did Not Have Sanction of the Imperial Government—Full Text of Note to the Austro-Hungarian Rulers.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing made public the text of the American note to Austria-Hungary regarding the sinking of the Italian steamship Ancona.

The note reveals a formal demand by the United States for prompt denunciation of the "illegal and indefensible" act; for punishment of the submarine commander, and for reparation by the payment of indemnity for the killing and injuring of innocent American citizens.

These demands follow a statement informing Austria-Hungary that "the good relations of the two countries must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity." The note arraigns the shelling and torpedoing of the liner as "inhumane," "barbarous" and a "wanton slaughter" of "helpless men, women and children."

In official circles the communication is regarded as being the most emphatic declaration to come from the United States government since the beginning of the European war. No attempt is made to conceal the fact that unless the demands are quickly complied with diplomatic relations between the two countries will be in grave danger of being severed. The text of the note, which was handed to the Austrian foreign office by Ambassador Penfield, follows:

"The Secretary of State to Ambassador Penfield:

"Please deliver note to the minister of foreign affairs, textually as follows:

"Reliable information obtained from American and other survivors who were passengers on the steamship Ancona shows that on Nov. 7 a submarine flying the Austro-Hungarian flag fired a solid shot toward the steamship; that thereupon the Ancona attempted to escape, but being overhauled by the submarine she stopped; that after a brief period, and before the crew and passengers were all able to take to the boats, the submarine fired a number of shells at the vessel and finally torpedoed and sank her while there were yet many persons on board, and that by gunfire and foundering of the vessel a large number of persons lost their lives, or were seriously injured, among whom were citizens of the United States.

Survivors' Declaration Confirmed.

"The public statement of the Austro-Hungarian admiralty has been brought to the attention of the government of the United States and received careful consideration. This statement substantially confirms the principal declaration of the survivors, as it admits that the Ancona, after being shelled, was torpedoed and sunk while persons were still on board.

"The Austro-Hungarian government has been advised through the correspondence which has passed between the United States and Germany of the attitude of the government of the United States as to the use of submarines in attacking vessels of commerce and the acquiescence of Germany in that attitude, yet, with full knowledge on the part of the Austro-Hungarian government of the views of the government of the United States, as expressed in no uncertain terms to the ally of Austria-Hungary, the commander of the submarine which attacked the Ancona failed to put in a place of safety the crew and passengers of the vessel which they purposed to destroy, because, it is presumed, of the impossibility of taking it into port as a prize of war.

"The government of the

"(Signed) LANSING."

States considers that the commander violated the principles of international law and of humanity by shelling and torpedoing the Ancona before the persons on board had been put in a place of safety or even given sufficient time to leave the vessel. The conduct of the commander can only be characterized as wanton slaughter of defenseless noncombatants, since at the time when the vessel was shelled and torpedoed she was not, it appears, resisting or attempting to escape; and no other reason is sufficient to excuse such an attack, not even the possibility of rescue.

"The government of the United States is forced, therefore, to conclude either that the commander of the submarine acted in violation of his instructions, or that the imperial and royal government failed to issue instructions to the commanders of its submarines, in accordance with the law of nations and the principles of humanity. The government of the United States is unwilling to believe the latter alternative and to credit the Austro-Hungarian government with an intention to permit its submarines to destroy the lives of helpless men, women and children. It prefers to believe that the commander of the submarine committed this outrage without authority and contrary to the general or special instructions which he had received.

Good Relations at Stake.

"At the good relations of the two countries must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity, the government of the United States can not be expected to do otherwise than to demand that the imperial and royal government denounce the sinking of the Ancona as an illegal and indefensible act; that the officer who perpetrated the deed be punished, and that reparation by the payment of an indemnity be made for the citizens of the United States who were killed or injured by the attack on the vessel.

"The government of the United States expects that the Austro-Hungarian government, appreciating the gravity of the case, will accede to its demand promptly; and rests this expectation on the belief that the Austro-Hungarian government will not sanction or defend an act which is condemned by the world as inhuman and barbarous, which is abhorrent to all civilized nations, and which has caused the death of innocent American citizens.

steady gains of the past week, many prisoners and great quantities of material falling into their hands. The British war office admits the loss of eight big field guns and places the British losses at "some 1,500 men."

From official French and British reports it is evident that the British line now runs from the western shore of Lake Dorian to the Salonica-Nish railway, and is in contact at that point with the French, whose line extends from a point just south of Ghevghelli westwards to the frontier.

Berlin described the allied retreat as "in a miserable condition." The extreme violence of the Bulgarian attacks and the tenacity of the allies' resistance is illustrated by the British war office report. To the bravery of three Irish regiments, the Munster fusiliers, the Dublin fusiliers and the Connaught rangers, this report ascribes the success of the retirement of the Tenth British division to its present line.

The French, who sustained the first onslaught of the Bulgars in the Varadar valley a little less than a week ago, managed on Dec. 10 and 11 to withdraw their lines "without fighting," according to the Paris war office statement. It was then that the Bulgarians concentrated their forces with all might against the British west of Lake Dorian and forced them to change their position from a vertical to a horizontal line.

The situation on the eastern front, except for local fighting, is practically stationary. In the Caucasus Grand Duke Nicholas captured the fortified Turkish positions on the Sultan-Bulac ridge.

London, Dec. 13.—Fighting of the utmost violence, which began six days ago, when the beginning of the allied retreat in southern Serbia was forced by Bulgarian onslaughts, is still going on, the Bulgars attacking and pursuing with undiminished force and the allies rendering stubborn rear guard resistance, but retreating steadily.

Berlin announces that the allied re-trete across the Greek frontier already has begun. The Bulgarian war force, however, admits that the Anglo-French forces are "desperately resisting at every position."

The allied forces have been pushed by the victorious Bulgarians into the bend formed by the Serbo-Greek border line in the southeast. The pursuers are reaping the fruits of their efforts. The stomach and bowels

CLOSING SERMON OF SPLENDID SERIES

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage closed a series of special sermons to young people on "Success" Sunday night at the Presbyterian church, with an unusually large audience for the im-

The series has been followed with great interest, each sermon teeming with helpful and original suggestions of practical value.

The last sermon discussed "Common Sense" as a most necessary essential to success. The speaker defined common sense as the composite of good judgment, right feeling and keen intuition and laid stress upon the big factor contributing to success in the possession of a large nature, capable of laying aside all prejudices and being absolutely fair in judgment.

OF AUSTRIA

By Associated Press.

Washington, December 13.—Further action by the United States government on its demands of Austria-Hungary, as set forth in a communication regarding the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, the text of which was published today, now rests with the Austrian government.

Baron Erich Zweidinek, charge of the Austrian embassy, had a conference today with Secretary Lansing. When the conference was over Secretary Lansing said the Ancona note had been discussed, but he declined to answer any questions.

The note clearly indicates that a break in the diplomatic relations between the two countries will follow failure of the Austro-Hungarian government to redress the acts of the submarine commander.

On Board the Steamship Oscar II, by Wireless, December 13.—Prominent members of Henry Ford's peace party refused last night to sign a resolution condemning President Wilson's preparedness policy.

More than a dozen members, including S. S. McClure, of New York, and Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, refused to sign the resolution, prepared by Rev. Jenkin Jones and Rev. Charles Aked, on the ground that it was unpatriotic.

An appeal, addressed to each reigning monarch of Europe, was wirelessed today.

The message says the party does not wish to intrude upon the national life and ideals of the countries at war, but desires to aid the people in realizing their ideals.

In part, the message says:

"We neutrals are about to join in a conference which shall, without delay, frame and submit to you and all other belligerent nations, proposals as a basis for discussion leading to a final settlement.

Therefore, we earnestly entreat you and the rulers of all other warring nations to declare an immediate truce.

Then, let the negotiations proceed, so that the soldiers may be delivered from another bitter winter in the trenches and sent back to their labors and firesides.

As there is no other way to end the war except by mediation and discussion, why waste one more precious human life?

G. O. P. ASPIRANTS
THEIR AGES

Right now when several prominent gentlemen have thrown their hats in the ring, wherein will be fought out the battle for the Republican presidential nomination, a great many people are asking "how old" each aspirant is. For their information it may be stated that Theodore E. Burton was born December 29, 1851 and is therefore nearly 64 years of age. Eliza Root was born February 15th, 1845 and is therefore well along towards 71 years of age. Albert Baird Cummings was born February 15th, 1850 and will therefore be 66 years of age next February. MANY FALL ON
ICY PAVEMENT

Saturday and Sunday were typical "fall" days, and as a result a large number of citizens sustained more or less painful injuries due to falling on the ice-covered pavement.

The condition of the streets and earth generally from early Saturday until the snow fell Sunday night was very dangerous, and scores of persons fell heavily.

Saturday night, too, add to the danger, some of the street lights were out and this caused many falls which otherwise would not have occurred.

The slippery condition of the streets was due to rain which froze as it fell. Fortunately the falling rain did not freeze upon telephone and telegraph wires and branches of trees in sufficient quantities to cause any serious damage.

Mr. J. S. Smith, manager of the Parish Furniture Company, was among those sustaining injuries. He was able to be about Monday morning, however.

Mr. C. C. McCreary was badly hurt in a fall Saturday evening.

Saving for Christmas

Some idea of the growth of the very wholesome practice of saving funds for Christmas buying, may be obtained from the announcement that in the one city of Columbus alone the banks, which have encouraged the Christmas fund savings idea, will turn over four hundred thousand dollars to holiday shoppers.

What of happiness that means to those who now have the money to spend, just when they need it most, and what it means, in the way of increased business in the stores and shops of the Capital City, can scarcely be overestimated.

What is true in Columbus is true in almost every city of this section of the country.

Of course, the idea of saving money by making small deposits is not new. It has been known for a long time. The only trouble has been that so few have availed themselves of the plan.

We Americans are peculiar in our ways—it seems necessary for us speaking, of course, generally, to have an objective—a purpose for every action.

Perhaps, too few Americans, for the individual prosperity of the country, are able to save money simply for the sake of saving it. As a usual thing, we Americans want to make money to spend and if there is not something in view at the end of a saving campaign to spend it for, then, most of us, are pretty certain to spend it as soon as it is received.

The saving for a Christmas fund idea has apparently furnished the sufficiently alluring "want" to pull many Americans through a saving campaign.

Saving during the year for Christmas now has become immensely popular and best of all it's wholesome and results in good all around.

Indeed, if this saving for Christmas fashion, remaining popular a little while longer, possibly, we Americans may form a habit of saving just for the sake of saving. We are strong for habits and that would be a habit worth while.

Will Pay Board's Debts

The state emergency board, that one extra arm of the state government which reaches out and assists any of the departments that lose their way in the forests of financial difficulties, when the regular arms of the budget system prove too short, has harkened to the wailings of the state agricultural board.

Ohio folks will remember that this year the new state board of agriculture wound up the state fair with a deficit of, practically, twenty thousand dollars and, consequently, public service has not been pleasant for the members of the board since the fair closed. Heartless creditors insisted on receiving the money due them.

The agriculture board had a splendid alibi but the creditors refused to accept an alibi and insisted on money.

The only thing to be done, under such embarrassing circumstances, with creditors in every community of the state, was for the "ag" board to send out a call of distress, and it did.

After due consideration the emergency board has concluded to dip into the state treasury for the needed twenty thousand dollars and pay up. This of course only after it had been definitely settled that the members of the agriculture board, incurring a larger indebtedness than they could pay, had acted in good faith, that they were new to the work, having only been appointed shortly before the date fixed for the fair, and couldn't be expected to know as much about the finances pertaining to their department as their predecessors in office.

It's right that the emergency board should provide the money to wipe out the deficit. The whole people of the state do not expect a comparatively few individuals to lose money on account of the short comings of officials, whether they are the result of good or bad intentions.

The state of Ohio has a big treasure chest and comfortable cash balance, and the people will approve of the action of the emergency board in authorizing the payment of the state's debts.

If the agriculture board is made up of well intentioned incompetent members there should be a reorganization.

In any event though the state treasury should make good the individuals throughout Ohio who extended credit to regularly appointed officials.

Poetry For Today

CROSSES.

There is a cross—a cross of iron, The gift of an iron hand, Who wears it over his iron heart, He must relentlessly do his part For the sake of the Fatherland, And deal, with bullets and bayonet thrusts, Death and despair—alas, he must!

There is another cross; it is Simply a cross of red. Who wears it knows neither friend nor foe, But pity only; and to and fro, He is swift to carry relief from pain, And, to the tortured, strength again.

Working to save salvation's own Sign he may fairly don. The bursting shells and the shrapnel dust Fall, all unheeded; if die he must, He will die—but his work lives on; He is tender, tireless, and none more brave; Fighting always—to cheat the grave

It is true a day is due When reckoning shall be made, Who then will face the tribunal dread, Among the ranks of the risen dead, Calm, steadfast and unafraid?

In the dawn of that Resurrection Morn, Which cross then will be proudly worn?

SAYS WIFE INSANE WHEN HE MARRIED HER HERE

Highland County Man Makes Unusual Charge in Action for Divorce—Declares the Woman Whom He Married Was Insane and That No Legal Marriage Contract Was Made—Asks Court for Relief.

Alleging that the woman he married in this city September 22, 1915, was insane and that a legal marriage contract does not exist, William Bruce has filed action in the Highland county common pleas court in which he asks for divorce from Ruth Ethel Bruce, and summons has been placed in the hands of Sheriff Jones to serve on the defendant.

The plaintiff charges that when he married the defendant he was unaware that she was afflicted as charged, and that he has since learned that the defendant upon three occasions has been confined in an insane asylum.

Plaintiff states that he learned that the defendant was first adjudged insane in the Fayette county probate court, September 23, 1911, and committed to the insane asylum at Athens, Ohio; that the defendant again was taken before the probate court upon affidavit by her father, and sent to the Athens asylum. This was about July, 1913, and that the defendant also was confined in the Bethesda Hospital for the insane in Cincinnati.

Bruce asks that the alleged marriage contract be declared null and void.

J. S. S. Riley, of Hillsboro, represents the plaintiff in the action.

Because of the unusual nature of the charges the suit is attracting more than ordinary attention, and is one of the first of its kind filed in which a Fayette county citizen is one of the principals.

Superintendent's Office.

Portland, Oregon, 7-3-12.

Board of Public Works.

Seattle, Washington,

Gentlemen:

"We are advised by the representative of Bitulithic Pavement at Portland, that it has been stated that Bitulithic was not suitable for paving the down-town district of an important city, and they have asked us to cite our experience in Portland. We are therefore taking the liberty of addressing you on the subject.

"Our warehouse is located on the corner of Fifth and Pine Sts., in the center of the wholesale district. In 1904 brick was used as a material for paving Pine street. Fifth St. was paved in 1904 with Bitulithic. We have had an enormous amount of standing traffic as well as through traffic on both of these streets, and now that nine years have passed we are able to pass on the merits of the two pavements. The Bitulithic Pavement today is in first-class condition, notwithstanding it is now in its ninth year. Last year Pine street which had been paved with brick was in such a wretched condition, having been worn into chuck holes, that an effort was made by the Crescote Block Interests to pave Pine Street with Creosote Blocks.

The property owners of Pine Street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, however, believing that Bitulithic would make a better pavement for them than wood blocks, let a private contract to the Bitulithic Company, and the old bricks were taken up on Pine Street, and Bitulithic is now laid in its place. That the property owners in this block should unanimously decide on Bitulithic as the pavement to be used, with the example of Fifth street before them, which has been in use nine years, should be sufficient endorsement of the merits of this pavement. We consider Bitulithic Pavement in every way suitable for heavy traffic, giving a good foothold for the horse, and the traction is in every way suitable and equal to any other pavement in the city.

"Any one who will visit Portland and examine the conditions around our building, including the present condition of the pavement, will see for themselves the basis for the above opinion.

"Yours very truly,
Marshall-Wells Hardware Co.

WANTS ANOTHER ON THE THRONE

President Yuan Refuses the Imperial Crown.

ISSUES DECREE TO COUNCIL

Declares His Willingness to Serve as President of China Until Some One Else is Selected as Emperor—Chinese Legation at Washington Makes Public Yuan's Mandate and Council's Petition.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The report that Yuan Shi Kai, who has been president of the Chinese republic since its foundation in 1912, has consented to accept the imperial crown is contradicted by a dispatch received by the Chinese legation.

The legation made public the essential points in the president's mandate just issued by Yuan Shi Kai. The decree makes it clear that China has reverted to a monarchical form of government, but it represents Yuan Shi Kai as protesting against having the crown thrust upon him and pleading that somebody else be selected "to ascend the throne."

The copy of the mandate received here indicates that he declined the honor, but consented to continue to serve as president until someone else was named as emperor.

It was acknowledged at the legation that this seemed to conflict with the press reports from Pekin, which indicated that Yuan declined the honor at first, but later accepted. The decree gives this communication from the state council to Yuan Shi Kai: "This council found that there are 1,993 national citizen representatives, and there are 1,993 votes in favor of a constitutional monarchy, and all the laws and ordinances, with the exception of those which are in conflict with this form of government, are still valid." The decree urges Yuan to ascend the throne.

Yuan Shi Kai says in the decree:

"If I made myself emperor I would break my oath, and there is no excuse on the point of faith. My primary object, however, is to save the country and to save the people, and I do not mind sacrificing myself for the attainment of this object. I think the citizens' representatives who love me will not force upon me the task which would be difficult for me to execute.
I, the president, meantime will, in the exercise of existing duties of powers, still maintain the existing conditions throughout the whole country.
The petitions are herewith returned."

Rintelen, who was a prominent figure in Wall street at the time the alleged pro-German conspiracies were afoot, was generally looked upon as a personal friend of Kaiser Wilhelm, and as having been the financial backer of various schemes in the interest of German propaganda and German interests. Among other things he was charged with being the backer of the proposed Huerta uprising in Mexico, the purpose of which was to embarrass the United States government.
He was arrested in London under an alias corresponding to the name set forth in a Swiss passport he was carrying.

FOR PRESIDENT

New York, Dec. 13.—A number of Democrats who have confidence in the winning power of Champ Clark and unbound enthusiasm for the man himself have established the Champ Clark presidential campaign committee and set out to boost Mr.
Clark. "It is our purpose," says a brief circular issued by the committee, "to organize in the various states of the Union as we feel that there is a strong sentiment in favor of Champ Clark. We strongly urge that the Democratic party platform for a one term plank must be carried out."

The personnel of the organization is thus outlined: Julius J. Binder, chairman; Philip Lewy, vice chairman; M. L. Crames, secretary; Michael E. Tropauer, treasurer.

Chardon, O., Dec. 13.—Despite the fact that her countrymen believe the world to be flat, Mary Miller, a Middlefield Amish girl, must go to school and learn the contrary. This was the decision of Justice Brigden at Middle-field after a bitterly fought suit to compel Joe Miller, her father, to send the girl to school. Justice Brigden decided the case in favor of the state and fined Miller $5 and costs. A motion was made for a new hearing.
Middlefield Amishmen will back Miller
in fighting the case.

BIG RAILROAD STRIKE
LIKELY NEXT SPRING

Men Demand Eight Hour Day
and Increase of Wages.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—It became known that a nationwide railroad strike on May 1, 1916, is the possible outcome of a conference of representatives of western engineers and firemen in Chicago unless radical and sweeping increases in pay and decrease in working hours are agreed to by the employers.

Eastern and southern railroad engineers and firemen previously had agreed to join forces in compelling railroads to raise wages and to cut the working day to eight hours, with time and a half for overtime. Sunday the western enginemen's representatives decided to cast their lot with the others.

A general conference of eastern, southern and western railroad men's representatives will be held in Chicago Wednesday to prepare preliminary plans for shutting down every large railroad in the country if no heed is given their demands.

"No one can predict what will happen four months from now," said Warren Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.
"There is no basis as yet for stating that the question between us and the employers will or will not be arbitrated, nor can anyone at this time say whether there will or will not be a strike."

MOLDERS STRIKE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 13.—Just when they are under an avalanche of orders the seventy foundries, or a majority of them at least, in this district will be tied up by a strike of 1,500 molders, who demand an eight hour day.
A few foundries have granted a shorter day, but the majority have not.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The marked increased the frequency of sailings,

TURKS HARASS THE ENGLISH

London, Dec. 13.—A Turkisn official statement received here by way of Berlin says that the British forces which are entrenched at Kut-el-Amara are in danger of being cut off from the rear, and that it is expected that they will be forced to retreat further to the south. The statement also repeats private advices received in Constantinople to the effect that the battalions were surrounded and taken prisoners. The position of the expeditionary force as described in the Turkish statement is far from reassuring. The Turks have driven the British forces from the right bank of the Tigris at Kut-el-Amara and have occupied the bridge across the river driving off gunboats which disputed their progress.

Disavowal of Ancona Affair Demanded.

LANSING ASSAILS ACT

Terms Destruction of Liner as Barbarous and Inhuman.

ASKS FOR FULL REPARATION

Would Have Commander of the Austrian Submarine That Torpedoed the Ancona Punished For the Deed, Which Secretary of States Assumes Did Not Have Sanction of the Imperial Government—Full Text of Note to the Austro-Hungarian Rulers.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Secretary of State Lansing made public the text of the American note to Austria-Hungary regarding the sinking of the Italian steamship Ancona.

The note reveals a formal demand by the United States for prompt denunciation of the "illegal and indefensible" act; for punishment of the submarine commander, and for reparation by the payment of indemnity for the killing and injuring of innocent American citizens.

These demands follow a statement informing Austria-Hungary that "the good relations of the two countries must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity." The note arraigns the shelling and torpedoing of the liner as "inhumane," "barbarous" and a "wanton slaughter" of "helpless men, women and children."

In official circles the communication is regarded as being the most emphatic declaration to come from the United States government since the beginning of the European war. No attempt is made to conceal the fact that unless the demands are quickly complied with diplomatic relations between the two countries will be in grave danger of being severed. The text of the note, which was handed to the Austrian foreign office by Ambassador Penfield, follows:

"The Secretary of State to Ambassador Penfield:

"Please deliver note to the minister of foreign affairs, textually as follows:

"Reliable information obtained from American and other survivors who were passengers on the steamship Ancona shows that on Nov. 7 a submarine flying the Austro-Hungarian flag fired a solid shot toward the steamship; that thereupon the Ancona attempted to escape, but being overtaken by the submarine she stopped; that after a brief period, and before the crew and passengers were all able to take to the boats, the submarine fired a number of shells at the vessel and finally torpedoed and sank her while there were yet many persons on board, and that by gunfire and foundering of the vessel a large number of persons lost their lives, or were seriously injured, among whom were citizens of the United States.

Survivors' Declaration Confirmed.

"The public statement of the Austro-Hungarian admiralty has been brought to the attention of the government of the United States and received careful consideration. This statement substantially confirms the principal declaration of the survivors, as it admits that the Ancona, after being shelled, was torpedoed and sunk while persons were still on board.

"The Austro-Hungarian government has been advised through the correspondence which has passed between the United States and Germany of the attitude of the government of the United States as to the use of submarines in attacking vessels of commerce and the acquiescence of Germany in that attitude, yet, with full knowledge on the part of the Austro-Hungarian government of the views of the government of the United States, as expressed in no uncertain terms to the ally of Austria-Hungary, the commander of the submarine which attacked the Ancona failed to put in a place of safety the crew and passengers of the vessel which they purposed to destroy, because, it is presumed, of the impossibility of taking it into port as a prize of war.

United States must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity, the government of the United States can not be expected to do otherwise than to demand that the imperial and royal government denounce the sinking of the Ancona as an illegal and indefensible act; that the officer who perpetrated the deed be punished, and that reparation by the payment of an indemnity be made for the citizens of the United States who were killed or injured by the attack on the vessel.

"The government of the United States expects that the Austro-Hungarian government, appreciating the gravity of the case, will accede to its demand promptly; and rests this expectation on the belief that the Austro-Hungarian government will not sanction or defend an act which is condemned by the world as inhuman and barbarous, which is abhorrent to all civilized nations, and which has caused the death of innocent American citizens.

States considers that the commander violated the principles of international law and of humanity by shelling and torpedoing the Ancona before the persons on board had been put in a place of safety or even given sufficient time to leave the vessel. The conduct of the commander can only be characterized as wanton slaughter of defenseless noncombatants, since at the time when the vessel was shelled and torpedoed she was not, it appears, resisting or attempting to escape; and no other reason is sufficient to excuse such an attack, not even the possibility of rescue.

"The government of the United States is forced, therefore, to conclude either that the commander of the submarine acted in violation of his instructions, or that the imperial and royal government failed to issue instructions to the commanders of its submarines, in accordance with the law of nations and the principles of humanity. The government of the United States is unwilling to believe the latter alternative, and to credit the Austro-Hungarian government with an intention to permit its submarines to destroy the lives of helpless men, women and children. It prefers to believe that the commander of the submarine committed this outrage without authority and contrary to the general or special instructions which he had received.

Good Relations at Stake.

"At the good relations of the two countries must rest upon a common regard for law and humanity, the government of the United States can not be expected to do otherwise than to demand that the imperial and royal government denounce the sinking of the Ancona as an illegal and indefensible act; that the officer who perpetrated the deed be punished, and that reparation by the payment of an indemnity be made for the citizens of the United States who were killed or injured by the attack on the vessel.

"The government of the United States expects that the Austro-Hungarian government, appreciating the gravity of the case, will accede to its demand promptly; and rests this expectation on the belief that the Austro-Hungarian government will not sanction or defend an act which is condemned by the world as inhuman and barbarous, which is abhorrent to all civilized nations, and which has caused the death of innocent American citizens.

steady gains of the past week, many prisoners and great quantities of material falling into their hands. The British war office admits the loss of eight big field guns and places the British losses at "some 1,500 men."

From official French and British reports it is evident that the British line now runs from the western shore of Lake Dorian to the Salonica-Nish railway, and is in contact at that point with the French, whose line extends from a point just south of Ghevghell westwards to the frontier.

Berlin described the allied retreat as "in a miserable condition." The extreme violence of the Bulgarian attacks and the tenacity of the allies' resistance is illustrated by the British war office report. To the bravery of three Irish regiments, the Munster fusiliers, the Dublin fusiliers and the Connaught rangers, this report ascribes the success of the retirement of the Tenth British division to its present line.

The French, who sustained the first onslaught of the Bulgars in the Varvar valley a little less than a week ago, managed on Dec. 10 and 11 to withdraw their lines "without fighting" according to the Paris war office statement. It was then that the Bulgars concentrated their forces with all might against the British west of Lake Dorian and forced them to change their position from a vertical to a horizontal line.

The situation on the eastern front, except for local fighting, is practical stationary. In the Caucasus Grand Duke Nicholas captured the fortified Turkish positions on the Sultan-Bulac ridge.

London, Dec. 13.—Fighting of the utmost violence, which began six days ago, when the beginning of the allied retreat in southern Serbia was forced by Bulgarian onslaughts, is still going on, the Bulgars attacking and pursuing with undiminished force and the allies rendering stubborn rear guard resistance, but retreating steadily.

Berlin announces that the allied retirement across the Greek frontier already has begun. The Bulgarian war office, however, admits that the Anglo-French forces are "desperately retreating at every position."

The allied forces have been pushed by the victorious Bulgarians into the bend formed by the Serbo-Greek border line in the southeast. The pursuers are reaping the fruits of their

OLD LETTER SOLD

New York, Dec. 13.—An important revolutionary letter from General Washington to Colonel Bland, written and signed by Alexander Hamilton, as aide de camp directing an urgent move in the defense of Philadelphia, at the William Nelson sale at the American art galleries, was bought by E. D. North for $125. A receipt book containing the names of 500 officers and soldiers of the revolution quartered at Morristown, N. J., in the spring of 1780, was bought by J. Grammercy.

Ravenna, O., Dec. 13.—James Keill, fifty-five, road contractor for the Portage County Improvement association, was found dead in bed at a local hotel. He came here from Youngstown last spring.

London, Dec. 13.—Two Turkish gunboats and a large sailing vessel were sunk in the Black sea by three Russian torpedo boats. It is announced in the official Russian war report. The sinking was preceded by an artillery battle between the war craft, from which the Russian torpedo boats emerged without loss.

FOOD FOR GERMANY BY POSTE

New York, Dec. 13.—The re-establishment of parcel post service with Germany and Austria is occupying the attention of Postmaster General Burleson, according to Edmund Von Mach, executive chairman of the citizens' committee for food shipments, which on Saturday sent packages of food by first class mail to Germany by way of Scandinavia. The citizens committee is exerting itself to the utmost to reopen the parcels post service to Germany so that goods may be shipped without paying the almost prohibitive first class postage on it. The service was suspended on Nov. 15 by the government shortly after the Holland-American line had refused to take shipments on the ground that the mail service had been interrupted by the English authorities because food was reaching the central powers through that medium.

COLONIAL TOMORROW.

A number of former Washington friends were in waiting at the station and accompanied the sad party to the cemetery, where the interment was made by the side of the husband of the deceased, Judge M. J. Williams.

There was a great profusion of beautiful flowers.

The pallbearers were Judge F. G. Carpenter, Hon. A. R. Creamer, Messrs. Frank L. Stutson, Frank M. Fullerton, C. P. Ballard and Mr. Paul M. Logan of Cincinnati.

Clifford Householder, employed at the Coffman mill, sustained a badly mangled thumb, Monday morning, when his thumb came in contact with the rapidly revolving edge of a swing saw, and the flesh was torn from the back of the thumb so that the bone was exposed.

Had the saw gotten hold of the thumb the young man would, in all probability, have lost a large portion of his hand.

PROMINENT DIVINE RESIGNS PASTORATE

People in this city who remember the series of fine meetings conducted by Dr. Mont S. Sawyers in the First Presbyterian church of this city, will be interested to learn that Dr. Sawyers has resigned as pastor of the Avondale Presbyterian church, Avondale, Cincinnati, owing to dissension in the church.

LINDSEY FUNERAL

The funeral services of Mrs. Anne Lindsey will be held in the undertaking office of Albert McCoy, Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Washington cemetery.

For HER? Christophers.

CLOSING SERMON OF SPLENDID SERIES

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage closed a series of special sermons to young people on "Success" Sunday night at the Presbyterian church, with an unusually large audience for the inclement night.

The series has been followed with great interest, each sermon teeming with helpful and original suggestions of practical value.

The last sermon discussed "Common Sense" as a most necessary essential to success. The speaker defined common sense as the composite of good judgment, right feeling and keen intuition and laid stress upon the big factor contributing to success in the possession of a large nature, capable of laying aside all prejudices and being absolutely fair in judgment.

DEATH CALLS

WELL KNOWN FARMER

Mr. Wm. L. Smith died Saturday night at his home near Blessings Crossing.

Mr. Smith was well and favorably known as one of the well to do farmers of that section and his death is regretted by a host of friends.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at Blessing's M. E. church.
